 - (b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Act; and
 - (c) result in the employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

9. Dispute Resolution Term

9.1 If a dispute relates to:

- (a) a matter arising under the Agreement; or

(b) the National Employment Standards;

then this term sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

- 9.2 At any stage through dispute resolution process an Employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative, including a union, for the purposes of the procedures in this term.
- 9.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the Employee or Employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.
- 9.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the Commission.
- 9.5 The Commission may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:
- (1) The Commission will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and
 - (2) if the Commission is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the Commission may then:
 - (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
 - (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If the Commission arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act.

- 9.6 A decision that the Commission makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Div 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.
- 9.7 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this term:
- (a) an Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
 - (b) an Employee must comply with a direction given by nbn to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
 - (i) the work is not safe; or
 - (ii) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - (iii) the work is not appropriate for the Employee to perform; or
 - (iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the Employee to refuse to comply with the direction.

- 9.8 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the Commission in accordance with this term.

10. Types of Employment

Employees may be engaged on a full-time, part-time, casual or limited tenure basis. All Employees will go through an nbn induction program to be deemed appropriate by nbn for the work the Employee is performing.

10.1 Full-time employment

A full time Employee is an Employee not specifically engaged as part-time or casual. A full time Employee's ordinary hours will be an average of 38 hours per week in accordance with clause 17 - Hours of Work.

10.2 Part-time employment

- (a) An Employee may be engaged to work on a part-time basis involving a regular pattern of hours which will average less than 38 hours per week. An Employee so engaged will be paid per hour 1/38th of the weekly rate prescribed in Schedule A, B or C of this Agreement for the work performed.
- (b) Overtime will be payable to part-time Employees for time worked in excess of the hours fixed in accordance with the pattern of hours applicable to the Employee. However, a part-time Employee is not entitled to be paid overtime penalties on a day until they have worked at least an equivalent number of hours that day to an equivalent full-time Employee, provided that a part-time Employee will not work more than 38 hours in any week at ordinary rates.
- (c) The terms of this Agreement will apply pro rata to part-time Employees on the basis that ordinary weekly hours for full-time Employees are 38 hours.
- (d) Public holidays
Where the part-time Employee's normal paid hours fall on a public holiday prescribed by this Agreement and work is not performed by the Employee, such an Employee will not lose pay for the day. Where a part time Employee works on the public holiday, they will be paid in accordance with clause 26 – Public Holidays of this Agreement.

10.3 Casual employment

- (a) nbn may engage Employees on a casual basis in which case employment may be terminated by an hour's notice given either by nbn or the Employee, or by the payment or forfeiture of an hour's pay as the case may be.
- (b) A casual Employee is one engaged and paid as such, and for working ordinary time will be paid per hour 1/38th of the weekly wage prescribed by this Agreement for the work which the Employee performs, plus 25% casual loading.
- (c) The casual loading described in clause 10.3(b) is paid on the Employees base rate of pay for all ordinary hours. The casual loading is not paid when an Employee works on a Public Holiday – the public holiday penalty rate under clause 26.4 applies to the ordinary hourly rate. However, where a casual employee works overtime, the casual loading will be applied to the ordinary hourly rate before the applicable overtime rates are to be applied.
- (d) Subject to the evidentiary and notice requirements in clause 21.3 or 21.4, casual Employees are entitled to not be available to attend work, or to leave work:
 - (i) if they need to care for members of their immediate family or household who are sick and require care and support, or who require care due to an unexpected emergency, or the birth of a child;
 - (ii) if the employee suffers a miscarriage or a member of the employee's household suffers a stillbirth; or
 - (iii) upon the death of an immediate family or household member.

nbn and the casual Employee will agree on the period for which the casual Employee will be entitled to not be available to attend work. In the absence of agreement, the casual Employee is entitled to not be available to attend work for up to 48 hours (i.e. two days) per occasion. The casual Employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance.
- (e) Unless otherwise provided in the Agreement or NES the provisions of clauses 11 Termination of Employment, 12 Redundancy, 20 Annual Leave, 21 Personal/Carers Leave and Compassionate Leave, 22 Community Service Leave and 24 Parental Leave do not apply to casual Employees.

10.4 Casual conversion to full time or part time employment

Offers and requests for conversion from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment are provided for in the NES.

10.5 Limited tenure employment

- (a) An Employee may be engaged on a full time or part time basis for a specific period of time or for specific task(s).
- (b) The details of the specific period of time or specific task(s) shall be set out in writing and retained by nbn and a copy will be provided to the Employee.
- (c) An Employee engaged in accordance with 10.5(a) is for all purposes of the Agreement a full-time or part-time Employee, except where otherwise specified in this Agreement.
- (d) In general, the period of continuous employment for a limited tenure engagement will not be greater than 2 years in length, unless it is reasonable to do so.
- (e) Service under a contract of employment for a specific period of time or specific task(s) will form part of an Employee's period of continuous service, where such Employee is engaged as a full-time or part-time Employee immediately following such contract of employment.

11. Termination of Employment

11.1 Probation Period

- (a) Employees excluding casual Employees will be subject to a 6 month Probation Period, commencing from the day the Employee commences work.
- (b) During the Probation Period, nbn will assess an Employee's suitability for their position and provide feedback on their performance, including areas in which they need to improve.
- (c) During the Probation Period, employment may be terminated by either nbn or the Employee by giving one week's notice, or by the payment or forfeiture of 1 week's pay in lieu of such notice.

11.2 Notice of termination by nbn

All Employees, except employees serving in their Probation Period and casual employees, are entitled to four weeks' notice of termination by nbn. Employees over 45 years old who have completed at least two years service when they receive notice are given an additional week of notice.

nbn may, at its full discretion, elect to pay in lieu of notice or part thereof. In circumstances of serious misconduct, nbn reserves the right to terminating employment without notice.

11.3 Notice of termination by an Employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an Employee is the same as that required of nbn. If an Employee fails to give the required notice, nbn may withhold any monies due to the Employee on termination under this Agreement or the NES, provided that the Employee is at least 18 years of age, an amount not exceeding the amount the Employee would have been paid under this Agreement in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the Employee. nbn may, at its discretion, require an Employee not to attend work during part or all of the period of notice.

11.4 Job search entitlement

Where nbn has given notice of termination to an Employee, and where the notice is not paid fully or partly in lieu by nbn, an Employee will be allowed up to one day's time off during the notice period without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the Employee after approval from nbn.

12. Redundancy

12.1 An Employee, other than a casual and limited tenure Employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by nbn if the Employee's employment is terminated:

- (a) At nbn's initiative because nbn no longer requires the job done by the Employee to be done by anyone, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour; or
- (b) As otherwise provided in the NES redundancy sections as set out in the Act.

12.2 The amount of redundancy pay equals the total amount payable to the Employee for redundancy pay period worked out using the table below:

YEARS OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE	WEEKS' PAY
Less than 1 years' service	2 weeks
1 year and less than 2 years	4 weeks
2 years and less than 3 years	6 weeks
3 years and less than 4 years	7 weeks
4 years and less than 5 years	8 weeks plus pro rata
5 years and less than 6 years	10 weeks plus pro rata
6 years and less than 7 years	12 weeks plus pro rata
7 years and less than 8 years	14 weeks plus pro rata
8 years and less than 9 years	16 weeks plus pro rata
9 years and less than 10 years	18 weeks plus pro rata
10 years and less than 11 years	20 weeks plus pro rata
11 years or more	22 weeks up to a maximum of 48 weeks (see note)

Note: After 11 years of service 2 weeks will apply for each year thereafter (pro-rated) up to a maximum of 48 weeks. Notice of termination provided for in clause 11 of this Agreement will apply in addition to the redundancy payment set out in this clause. Weeks' pay under this clause means the Employee's base rate of pay for his or her ordinary hours of work. Pro rata for the purposes of this clause means to the nearest completed month of service.

12.3 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an Employee agrees to be transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the Employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated. nbn may also, at nbn's option, instead make payment of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

12.4 Employee leaving during notice period

An Employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The Employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

12.5 Job search entitlement

- (a) An Employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the Employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the Employee must, at the request of nbn, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. For this purpose, a statutory declaration will be sufficient.
- (c) This entitlement applies instead of clause 11.4.

12.6 Transmission

The provisions of clause 12 of this Agreement are not applicable where a business is transmitted from nbn (in this subclause called the transmittor) to another employer (in this subclause called the transmittee), in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) Where the Employee accepts employment with the transmittee which recognises the period of continuous service which the Employee had with the transmittor and any prior transmittor to be continuous service of the Employee with the transmittee; or
- (b) Where the Employee rejects an offer of suitable alternative employment with the transmittee.

In circumstances where a business is transmitted from the transmitter to the transmittee and an Employee becomes employed by the transmittee all redundancy provisions under this Agreement will be preserved as at the date of the Employee's transmission of employment.

12.7 Suitable Alternative Employment

- (a) nbn, in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if the nbn obtains acceptable alternative employment for an Employee.
- (b) This provision does not apply in circumstances involving transmission of business as set out in clause 12.6.

13. Classifications

13.1 Classification bands and base rates of pay for Employees are set out in Schedule A, B & C to this Agreement. During the first 6 months of the operation of this Agreement, nbn commits to a review of the classification bands set out in Schedule A, B & C. This review will be done in consultation with employees and the parties to this Agreement.

In conducting the review, nbn will align Customer Field Technicians to one of three tiers which they may progressively advance through.

13.2 Annualised pay arrangements

- (a) nbn may pay an Employee classified in Band 4 in Schedule A & C and Band 5 in Schedule B of this Agreement an annual allowance in addition to the Employee's annual base rate of pay. Where an annual allowance is paid to employees outlined in this clause, it will be in circumstances where it is agreed between nbn and an Employee that the Agreement provisions relating to allowances, hours of work, start and finish times, overtime and public holidays shall not apply because they have been compensated by the annual allowance. The annual allowance will be calculated by nbn to ensure that the Employee is no worse off in monetary terms than had the relevant Agreement terms been applied.
- (b) An Employee will be advised in writing the method of compensation being used.

14. Allowances

14.1 Allowances – Not for all purposes

The allowances in this clause do not apply for all purposes of the Agreement unless specifically stated.

Unless specified otherwise in this Agreement, nbn will increase the allowances set out in this clause by:

- (i) 3% (rounded to two decimal places) on and from the first full pay period commencing on or after the Date of Operation; and
- (ii) 3.25% (rounded to two decimal places) on and from the first full pay period commencing on or after 1 July 2023; and
- (iii) 3.25% (rounded to two decimal places) on and from the first full pay period commencing on and after 1 July 2024.

For the avoidance of doubt, the allowances specified in clauses 14.1(b) and 14.1(d) below are inclusive of the 3 % increase set out at (i) above.

(a) Vehicle allowance

An Employee who is required by nbn on a casual basis to use the Employee's motor vehicle to carry out nbn's business will be paid an allowance of $0.80 per kilometre. Where required, the vehicle allowance will be increased on and from the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2022, 1 July 2023 and 1 July 2024 to the amount of the most recent Australian Taxation Office annual adjustment applicable at the time.

(b) First aid allowance

An Employee who has been trained to render first aid and who is the current holder of appropriate first aid qualifications such as a certificate from the St John Ambulance or similar body must be paid a weekly allowance of $17.99 if they are appointed in writing by nbn to perform first aid duties.

(c) Telephone allowance

Where nbn requires an Employee in writing to have a phone for work purposes the cost of the phone and business calls will be met by nbn in accordance with nbn policy and procedure as amended from time to time. Reasonable personal calls may be met by nbn in accordance with nbn's policies and procedures as amended from time to time.

(d) Meal allowance

An Employee is entitled to a meal allowance of $20.67 on each occasion that the Employee is entitled to a rest break in accordance with clause 18.3, except in the following circumstances, if the Employee:

- (i) was notified no later than the previous day that they would be required to work overtime;
- (ii) is a shift worker and was notified no later than the previous day or previous rostered shift that they would be required to work such overtime; or
- (iii) is working from home (i.e. not at an nbn worksite).

 - (i) Payment for the first minimum period in full, or
 - (ii) Payment for both:
 - that part of the first minimum period up to the commencement of the second period of Non-continuous Overtime, plus
 - the full (minimum period or time worked plus travel time, as applicable) payment for the second period of Non-continuous Overtime.
- (e) Non-continuous Overtime worked in circumstances specified in this clause will not be regarded as overtime for the purposes of clause 18.5 where the time worked is less than three hours for the period or for each period - provided that where the total number of hours worked on more than one period of Non-continuous Overtime is four hours or more then the provisions of clauses 18.5(b) and 18.5(c) will apply.

18.4 Rest breaks during overtime

- (a) An Employee working overtime will be allowed a rest break of 20 minutes without deduction of pay after each four hours of overtime if the Employee continues to work after such rest break instead of the breaks provided in clause 19.
- (b) Where, however, an employee is asked to perform Non-continuous Overtime which is expected to exceed five hours of work (for example, to replace another employee who is unexpectedly absent or to work a full extra shift on a weekend), rest breaks and unpaid meal breaks will be those which would ordinarily have applied, if the day or shift was worked as ordinary hours in the applicable work area, in accordance with clause 19.

- (c) If on the instructions of nbn an Employee resumes or continues work without having had such 10 consecutive hours off duty, the Employee will be paid at the rate of double time until released from duty for such period and then is entitled to be absent until the Employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay.
- (d) The provisions of this clause will not apply to Non-continuous Overtime where the time worked is less than three hours during a block of overtime or each block of overtime. Provided that where the total number of hours worked on more than one block of Non-continuous Overtime is four hours or more between the end of one period of ordinary time and the commencement of the next, then the provisions of clauses 18.4(b) and 18.4(c) will apply.

 - (ii) meal breaks may be for a period of less than 30 minutes. An Employee and nbn may agree to less than 30 minutes, but not less than 20 minutes.
- (b) Where an agreement is reached by the majority of Employees, it will apply to all the Employees in the workplace or section(s) to which the agreement applies. This does not in any way restrict the application of an individual agreement.

- (b) Where an Employee would have received loadings, in accordance with clause 17 - Hours of work, of this Agreement, had the Employee not been on annual leave and such loadings would have entitled the Employee to a greater amount than the loading of 17.5% that was taken into account fixing the Employees remuneration, then the Employee will be paid a pro rata top up payment at the time the annual leave is taken by the Employee.

20.3 Excessive leave

If nbn has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an Employee as to the timing of taking annual leave, nbn can require the Employee to take annual leave by giving not less than four weeks' notice of the time when such leave is to be taken if:

20.5 Annual close-down

- (a) nbn may close down an enterprise or part of it for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the majority of the Employees in the enterprise or part concerned, provided that nbn gives at least one month's notice to the affected Employees. The terms and application of such policies will be at all times at the sole discretion of nbn. The purchased leave amount(s) will be adjusted against the Employees base rate of pay under this Agreement.

20.8 Cashing out of annual leave nbn regards the taking of annual leave as a key element in an employee's overall well-being and work life balance, and so as a principle, nbn does not encourage the cashing out of annual leave. Only in exceptional circumstances, including but not limited to financial hardship, will nbn consider agreeing to cash out annual leave.

The cashing out of annual leave is always subject to nbn's discretion, as well as the terms contained within the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) and in accordance with this clause:

- (a) Each cashing out of annual leave must be the subject of a separate agreement under this clause.
